Upon arrival, start your day of adventure by taking to the water on an inflatable Banana Boat Ride is the exciting water activities ride on the rubber boat in form of Banana and pulled by the speed boat. Other activities are available with your own personal cost, like : Jet Ski, Scuba Dive, Snorkeling, Ocean Walk, Snorkeling, Parasailing, and etc).

After lunch will take you to visit Pandawa Beach is a beautiful white sandy beach situated in the valley of white stone cliff, locally referred to as 'Pantai Pandawa', located on Bali's southern Bukit Peninsula. The beach is very beautiful with clear water apposite to Indian Ocean offering the exotic panorama, fresh sea breeze and peaceful atmosphere.

The sides remained as high walls, while the ocean-facing cliffs midway down the slope feature deeply carved arches installed with large statues. They each depict the hero characters from the Mahabharata epic, known as Pandawa Lima or the 'five Pandawas', hence the name of the beach.

There are six white stone statues draped in colourful Balinese waistcloths, namely Dewi Kunti, the mother figure from the epic, and the five heroes: Dharmawangsa (also known by the name Yudhistira), Bima, Arjuna, Nakula and Sahadewa.

After that we will take you to Uluwatu Temple, one of six key temples believed to be Bali's spiritual pillars, is renowned for its magnificent location, perched on top of a steep cliff approximately 70 metres above sea level. This is definitely one of the top places on the island to go to for sunset delights, with direct views overlooking the beautiful Indian Ocean.

Uluwatu temple has particular religious significance: Dhang Hyang Dwijendra, a pilgrim who founded the current form of Hindu-Dharma in the 15th century, lived his last days here. It's believed that he achieved "moksa," or unity with god, while meditating at this site.

While you here you also have opportunity to watch the most famous dance in Bali, Kecak and Fire Dance is a captivating traditional Balinese art performance, which also goes by, 'the monkey chant dance', and loosely 'fire dance', for its occasional use of fire as a centrepiece prop.

Kecak and Fire Dance is unique in that it has no other musical background or accompaniment besides the chanting of male dancers, intoning a "keh-chack" polyrhythmic choir during most of the performance. Kecak's storyline is taken from the Ramayana Hindu epic and it's often on the entertainment schedule of almost every Balinese arts and culture venue.

At the end of the day head to Jimbaran beach and the famous Jimbaran Bay are on Bali's southwestern coast. The beach is part of the narrow isthmus connecting the Bali mainland and the Bukit Peninsula. The beach and the bay of Jimbaran offers small secluded areas.

Beside the home of luxury hotels, Jimbaran is renowned for its famous seafood and romantic place for dinner. Is the time for you to enjoy unforgettable dinner experience by the white-sandy beach.
